The importance of French culture was demonstrated by the fame of French writers such as Pierre Corneille, Jean Racine and Jean Baptiste Poquelin des Fontaines, and the great French painters of the time, like Nicolas Poussin, Nicolas de Larmessin, Gaspard and Michel Monge. However, the world was no longer as orderly as it had been before the Thirty Years' War. There were continuous conflicts in Europe, starting with the Thirty Years' War, which lasted until the late 17th century.
